READ and Celebrate!

OHIO RIGHT TO READ WEEK

200- -20%$

May 10-14, 2010

Is this too late?
Don't hesitate, just select an earlier week and date.

YOUR STAFF AND STUDENTS WILL APPRECIATE

Plans that motivate, curriculum you integrate,
Lessons and activities that relate,
Elate, and fascinate!

Improve Literacy is what we advocate. Brainstorm and collaborate!

Contact local resources for time, goods, prizes to donate.

Invite guests: associate with a teen or two who, from your school, did graduate,
Civic leaders, celebrities, neighbors to state why lifetime reading is great.

Read books, essays, plays, genres that educate: biography about heroes to imitate;

Poetry to explicate; novels to enjoy, review and rate;

Daily news to evaluate; select themes and topics for debate;

Visit the Internet to communicate; each student should share with a classmate.

Watch the ordinary become ornate: with rooms to decorate and projects to create.

Design unique certificates to thank and congratulate.

Choose healthy snacks that don't add weight.

Host a marathon of fitness fun: exercise, dance, swim, skate.

Think world, country, city, state. Imagine a time when there is no hate.

Decades to investigate, such as the '70's and Watergate

Write classroom rules: Be on time, never late. Don't procrastinate.

Read! Concentrate! Get everyone to participate!

Your Celebration will Fine
