What is the Ohio Reading Council?

Our Mission

The Ohio Council of the International Reading Association supports and promotes literacy to help all Ohioans reach their full potential and develop a lifelong love of reading.

Our Goals

- To provide reading professionals at every level a forum for sharing information and ideas
- To create partnerships that foster literacy
- To encourage active research and professional development

Membership Benefits

Membership is open to all individuals interested in literacy.

Publications

- ✎ Members receive a subscription to the Ohio Reading Teacher
- ✎ Members receive a subscription to the Ohio Council newsletter
- ✎ Regular email featuring member news

Conferences

- ✎ Yearly OCIRA conference featuring famous authors and specialists in the field of literacy

Recognition

- ✎ Annual awards and grants for outstanding authors, reading educators, and other community members

Committees

OCIRA's goals are accomplished through the work of statewide committees. Members are encouraged to serve on committees of their interest. Committees include advocacy, legislation, Right to Read, Newspaper in Education, early childhood, adolescent/young adult, among others. Please see our website for a full list of committees.

How to Join:

Fill out the attached membership form with payment made out to OCIRA. Membership is required annually from your initial joining date to maintain active status.
